MP DANCES FOR CANCER COUNCIL

Nigel Gladstone

CAN he dance, can he jive?

Fans of Hornsby state Liberal MP Matt Kean will have to attend Stars of the North, a new Cancer Council fundraiser, to be digging the "Dancing Kean".

Eleven North Shore "stars" including Willoughby Mayor Gail Giles-Gidney, North Sydney MP Trent Zimmerman and Mr Kean will be matched with a professional dancer to do a one-off dance on Saturday, June 4, at the Concourse.

"I am happy to humiliate myself for such a good cause," Mr Kean said

With signature dance moves like the sprinkler and the lawnmower, Mr Kean suspects his dance partner - Sophia Anicic from Belcastro Dance Studio in Berowra - will ban any "daddy dancing".

"She is a Berowra local who has volunteered her time for a great cause. She has no idea what she has got herself in to," Mr Kean said.

"She has told me just to do what she says.

"I have not danced since my Year 9 bush dance but have been known to bust a move late at night at Hornsby RSL."

Every year in NSW 39,000 new cases of cancer are diagnosed.

Tickets are available online at ticketek, the Cancer Council or at theconcourse.com.au/cancer-council-nsw-presents-stars-of-the-north/
